Lesson 1 : Usage of Articles

Basics of Articles (Part 1 - A and An)

Articles are of TWO types. They are

1. Indefinite article ---- A / An
2. Definite article ---- The

What's the difference?
If you want to say about ANY item, you should use the articles A / An. If you want to say about a SPECIFIC item, you should use the article THE.

Confused? Let's see an example. Assume that you've selected for a Bank Exam. You have a stupid friend like me. So obviously She will ask you a party.

Suppose if She says

- Lets go to a Restaurant, that means She doesn't have any specific restaurant in Her mind. So you can give her party in ANY cheap restaurant. But,
- If she says Lets go to THE restaurant, that means She has some SPECIFICATIONS. I mean she have a specific restaurant in her mind. So you can't escape ;)

Well, this is the basic difference between A/An and The. There are so many differences and usages of these articles. We shall discuss them later.

Ok, lets discuss about the Indefinite articles first.

Indefinite Articles :

A : The indefinite article 'a' is used before singular countable nouns that start with a Consonant sound.
An : The indefinite article 'an' is used before singular countable nouns that start with a Vowel sound.

Wow, Nice definitions. No?

Have a look at some examples,
A:
- A Bat
- A Cat
- A Rat
- A Jug

An:
- An Apple
- An Egg
- AN Ink-Bottle
- An Orange
- An Umbrella

Great,

Now tell me, what should I use before the words European, One-Eyed Beggar, University, Useful Website?

Can I say, Guide4BankExams is an Useful site to know about Banking Exams?

NO

why?

Please Re-Read the definitions. Here we are talking about Vowel and Consonant SOUNDS. Not the Letters. People often confuse with this. They blindly put A before a word, if it starts with a Vowel letter (A, E, I, O, U) and put An before the word which starts with the consonant letter.

Consider the SOUND, not the LETTER.

Confusing? Let's see a short cut for this.

- If a word starts with a SWAR (Any of the Indian Language) sound, then we should use An before it.
- If a word starts with a Vyanjan (An of the Indian Language) sound, then we should use A before it.

Have a look at this picture,
so, now see these examples,

A:

- A European
- A One-Eyed beggar
- A University
- A Useful Website

An:

- An hour
- An Honest Man
- An honourable person

That's it.

Now let's see some more TRICKY examples in English.

Suppose, if you want to say about the Member of Parliament, you can say a Member of Parliament, But if you use shorter form as M.P, Then you should say, He is an M.P

Let's see another example, He is an NRI but He is a Non Resident Indian

Articles - The

The Usage of the "THE"

Ok, first of all sorry for the confusing title. In this blog we shall discuss where we should use the article "The". Some of these statements are really make you confuse and seems they are opposing each other. Please try to read this for two or three times. so that you can understand THE concept easily.

- Before superlative forms
  - Ex:
    - The Tallest
    - The Best
    - The most beautiful
- Before double comparatives
  - Ex:
    - ✔ The higher you go, the colder you gets
    - ✔ The harder you work, the better rank you get in Bank Exams
    - ✔ The more you earn, the more you want
• ✔ Sachin is the greater of the two cricketers
• ✔ Of the two cricketers sachin is the greater

Note :
• ✗ Sachin is the greater than lara
  • Now what’s the difference between the first statement and the third? why the first one is correct and third one is wrong? because in the 3rd statement, we have mentioned the Person’s name. But in the first statement we didn’t.

• Before positive form in apposition

  o EX:
  • Alexander, the great
  • Manmohan Singh, the prime minister etc

• Before musical instruments
  o The Guitar
  o The Tabla
  o The violin etc

• Before a Proper noun when used as a Common noun
  o Nelson mandela is The Gandhi of South Africa
  o Kalidasa is The Shakespeare of India

• Before some adjectives to make them nouns
  o Ex:
  • The Blind
  • The Dead
  • The Rich
  • The Poor
  • Usage :
    • The doctor restored sight to the blind (Here there is no need to mention "The Blind Person" because, the term Blind itself represents the Blind person, so its the adjective which is used as the noun.)
    • The rich should not mock at the poor
    • ✔ Jesus rose from the Dead
    • ✗ Jesus rose from Dead

• Before some Languages, to make them PEOPLE.
  o ✗ English ruled over India for many Years
  o ✔ The English Ruled over India for Many Years
  o ✗ French are good at heart
  o ✔ The French are good at heart

• When a noun’s quality is STRESSED o ✗ We cannot remove warrior in him
  o ✔ We cannot remove the warrior in him

  • The mother in her aroused when she saw a crying baby
• Before Ordinal numbers
  o The First
  o The Third
  o The Tenth, etc
  o Ex:
    - The first and the second posts of this blog
    - Note: Little clarification for those people who have no idea about Ordinal numbers
      - One, Two, Three, Four → Cardinal Numbers
      - First, Second, Third → Ordinal Numbers

• Before the names of Oceans, Seas, Rivers, Canals, Deserts, Groups of Mountains and Groups of Islands
  o Note: Don't use "The" for single mountain or single Island (That's the reason why we've underlined these two statements)
  o Ex:
    - ✔ The Pacific
    - ✔ The Red Sea
    - ✔ The Sahara
    - ✔ The Himalayas
    - Usage:
      - ✔ Kolkata is on the banks of the Hoogli
      - ✗ Kolkata is on the banks of the River Hoogli
      - ✔ Kolkata is on the banks of river Hoogli
      - ✔ Kolkata is on the banks of the Hoogli river
      - Dont be confused, please read the above sentences properly and understand them

• Before Holy Books
  - The Ramayana
  - The Quran
  - The Bible
  - Usage:
    - My father reads the Bible everyday

• Before the names of the Things, which are unique in nature
  o The Sun
  o The moon
  o The Sky
  o The ________ (You can add your name here :P kidding)

• Before the names of Planets and Satellites
  o The Mars
  o The Earth
  - Note: Little clarification for those people who confuses between the words Planet and Satellites
    - Planets rotates around the Sun
    - Satellites rotates around Planets

• In apposition, when name precedes the position (Important)
  o Mannmohan singh, the prime minister is on a two day tour to srilanka o In correction of sentences, they've given this model for a number of times. The above sentence means, Mannmohan singh, who is the prime minister is on a two day tour to srilanka.
  o Some time they will give like this
    - The X, the Y is on a two day tour to srilanka
    - What's wrong with this sentence? You can remove THE at the begining or, just put ARE in the place of IS, so that the sentence tells about TWO different persons one is X and the second one is Y
Before the names of some countries
- The U.S.A
- The UAE
- The Netherlands
- The Congo etc

Omission of Articles

Till now we have learnt where should we use A, An and where should we use THE. Now we shall learn where shouldn't we use these articles. Following are the conditions where we shouldn't use any article.

- Before the common nouns man, woman, god, heaven, hell, when used in general sense
  - Man is mortal but God is immortal
  - Man proposes but god disposes
  - Everybody wants to go to heaven but nobody wants to die
  - Note: But when particularized 'the' definite article is used.
    - The man who is standing at the door is my uncle
  - When it means one, the indefinite article is used.
    - There is a man at the door

- Before abstract nouns, when generalized
  - Honesty is the best policy
  - Beauty should lie in one’s heart
  - Bravery is the sign of man
  - Note: But when these are particularized, THE is used
    - The honesty the auto-driver showed was finally rewarded

- Before material nouns when Generalized
  - Water is essential for all
  - Sugar is sweet
  - Wood is used for making furniture
  - Gold is a precious metal
  - But when particularized, THE definite article is used
    - The water in this pond is pure
    - The gold used for making this chain was 22 carat

- Before places like Church, Temple, Mosque, School, College, University, Hostel, Library, Class, Hospital, Jail (Prison) etc. When they are visited for their primary purpose
  - He was an atheist, but now a days he is going to the church
  - ✔ He was an atheist, but now a days he is going to church
  - ✔ You should go to the school regularly in-order to get good marks
  - ✔ You should go to school regularly in-order to get good marks
  - ✔ I went to the church to meet my friend (here i dint go for the primary purpose(prayer))
  - ✔ The man was put in jail for killing a woman
  - ✔ The injured were taken to hospital
  - ✗ The injured were taken to the hospital

- But when these places are visited for their secondary purpose the definite article should be used.
  - He went to the temple to meet the priest
  - ✔ My father came to the school to talk to my class teacher

- But when it means one, the indefinite article is used
- There is a school at the end of the street
- Before Breakfast, Brunch, Lunch, Dinner etc, when used in general sense
  - we usually take lunch at 1
  - Breakfast is served between 7 and 9
- But when these are particularized, by an adjective, the indefinite article is used.
  - We had a delicious lunch yesterday (here the lunch is particularized, so we used an indefinite article "a")
  - We are going to have a healthy breakfast
- Before plural nouns, when generalized
  - Tigers are ferocious animals
  - Cows are domestic animals
  - Children like chocolates
- Note: Here if we represent singular instead of plural, then we should use articles
  - The tiger is a ferocious animal
  - A tiger is a ferocious animal
  - Tigers are ferocious animals
- In expressions like Go to bed, Take heart, Lose heart, Send word, Set fire
  - Please switch off all the lights before going to bed (not going to the bed)
  - Don't lose heart when you are on the verge of danger (not lose the heart)
  - The house was set on fire (not on the fire)
Lesson 2: Usage of Nouns

Noun and Number

All of us know what is noun and what is number. But there are some issues in Noun and Number which makes us confused often. Let's discuss them.

- Some nouns always singular in number, so they take the singular verb
  - Scenery, Luggage, Information, Advice, Machinery, Stationary, Poetry, Issue (Children), Rice, Soap, Bread, Brick etc
    - (There are no plural forms for the above words)
    - Two cakes of Soap (Not Two Soaps)
    - Two Pieces of brick (Not Two Bricks)
    - ☒ The sceneries of Kashmir are beautiful
    - ☑ The scenery of Kashmir is beautiful

- Some nouns are always plural in number. So, they take a plural verb.
  - Alms, Thanks, Goods, Regards, Wishes, Proceeds, Premises, Credentials, Riches, Pants, Pantaloons, Jeans, Tights, Shorts, Pajamas, Scissors, Forceps, Spectacles, Binoculars etc
    - × Convey my regard and wishes to your parents
    - ✔ Convey my regards and wishes to your parents
    - × I have never used such a scissors in my life
    - ✔ I have never used such scissors in my life
    - ✔ I have never used such a pair of scissors in my life

- Some nouns appear plural. But they are singular in number. So we should take a singular verb
  - Wages, Summons, Gallows, News, Politics, Electronics, Billboards, Measles, Mathematics etc
    - × The court has issued two summons to the minister, but he hasn't turned up yet
    - ✔ The court has issued two summons to the minister, but he hasn't turned up yet

Study PDFs and Official Notices - All in One - www.ExamTyaari.in
• ✗ I have a good news to tell you
  - Here there is no plural for News. We shouldn't use articles for these type of words.
  - ✓ I have good news to tell you
  - ✓ Measles is a disease (not are)
• Some nouns appear singular but they are plural in number. So, they take a plural verb.
  - Cattle, Infantry, Police, Poultry, Swine, Artillery, Peasantry, Gentry etc
    - ✗ This cattle is mine
    - ✓ These cattle are mine
• Some nouns can be used either as singulars or as plurals without changing their form
  - Sheep, Deer, Offspring, Species, Aircraft, Space Craft, Salmon, Yoke etc
    - ✗ These are many sheeps in the fields
    - ✓ There are many sheep in the fields

Formation of Plurals:

- Boy -------------- Boys
- Man ------------- Men
- Tooth -------------- Teeth
- Dog -------------- Dogs
- Ox ------------- Oxen
- Child ------------- Children
- Belief ------------- Beliefs
- Sheaf ------------- Sheaves
- Leaf ------------- Leaves
- Datum ------------ Data
- Stratum -------------- Strata
- Matrix ------------- Matrices
- Brother ------------ Brothers
- Brother - In - Law ------------- Brother - in - Laws ✗

  Brothers - in - Law ✓

- Man - Servant ------------- Men - Servants

Noun and Case

The Case is of 3 types,

1. Nominative Case (Subjective Case)
2. Accusative Case (Objective Case)
3. Possessive Case

Now have a look at an example for proper understanding,

1. Sachin is a Cricket player (Nominative)
2. We like Sachin (Accusative)
3. This is Sachin's Bat (Possesive)
Possessive Case:

- 'S (apostrophe) --- This is used for Human-beings / Living Things
- Of ------ Non Living / Living Things

Note: Usually we don't use 'S(a apostrophe S) for Non Living Things.

- ✔ This is Ravi's Book
- ❌ The building's roof needs to be repaired
- ✔ The roof of the building needs to be repaired

Exceptions:

- There are some exceptions for the above mentioned case. We can use 'S(a apostrophe S) for Time, Distance, Weight etc
  - An Hour's Time
  - A Ton's weight

Note: When a singular noun, which doesn't end in S (Hissing sound), The possessive case takes "S"

- Kamal's Pen
- Karthik's Watch
- Ramu's Dress

Note: When a singular noun, ends in S(Hissing Sound), the possessive case takes only apostrophe (' ) at the end (no need to add S)

- Keats' Poetry
- Lotus' Petals

When a plural noun doesn't end in S, the possessive case takes apostrophe S ('S)

- Children's specialist
- Women's college
- Men's single

When a plural noun ends in 'S', the possessive case takes only apostrophe at the end.

- Boys' Hostel
- Girls' College

When two persons and one possession in the sentence, the possessive case should be added to the latter
I went to Raju and Rani's house, but I found the couple absent. (What's the difference? Here Raju and Rani are couple. So obviously they live in the same house :) so two persons and one possession, so we should use 's to the latter (Rani)

When two different things are referred to, the possessive case should be added to both

- × India and China's problems are different
- ✔ India's and China's problems are different (because, here India and China are different countries and can't be same)

The comparison should be made between the same cases

- × India's problems are the same as Pakistan
- ✔ India's problems are the same as Pakistan's

In apposition, the possessive case should be added to the latter

- × This is Prime minister's manmohan singh's speech
- ✔ This is Prime minister manmohan singh's speech

Both of and apostrophe cannot usually be used in none sentence

- × This is the house of Gandhi's
- ✔ This is the house of Gandhi

Note: But the following expression is an exception

- Its ----- > Of It
- It's ----- > It is, It Was, It Has
- Hers ---> Of Her
- × Her's --> Her was, Her is (but these are wrong expressions)
- yours ---> Of Your
- × Your's ---> Your Is, Your Was (How horrible it is... so that's the reason why, our teachers tell us not to use apostrophe while writing yours faithfully at the end of a letter. But we neglect it ;)

Note: Don't use apostrophe for pronouns

- He is my friend
- He is a friend of mine
- He is her friend
- He is a friend of hers
- He is a friend of my brother ✔
- He is a friend of my brother's ×

Care should be taken while using a relative pronoun

- I have seen many of Amitabh's movies who is considered a great actor ×
- I have seen many movies of Amitabh, who is considered a great actor ✔
I have read four great tragedies of Shakespeare who is considered the greatest writer in English ✓
- I have read the four great tragedies of Shakespeare which are worth reading ✗
- I have read Shakespeare's four great tragedies which are worth reading ✓

In compound nouns the possessive case should be added to the last word
- He is my brother's-in-law friend ✗
- He is my brother-in-law's friend ✓

In the sentences with "One of These" the possessive should be used carefully
- I met the minister at one of my friend's house (this means, I have number of friends, and i met the minister in one of those friend's house)
- I met the minister at one of my friend's house (this means, my friend have number of houses and i met the minister in one of those houses)

Noun and Verb / Pronoun Agreement

Noun and Verb Agreement:

In this Post we shall discuss about the Noun and Verb agreement of the sentences. Have a look at the following points. These points will help you to use correct verbs while writing sentences.

- In the sentences, with "One of The" and a relative clause, the verb should be Plural. Confused??? see the example.
  - Aamir is one of the students who has paid the fee ✗
  - Aamir is one of the students who have paid the fee ✓

- In the sentences with the "Only one of The" and a relative clause, the verb should be Singular.
  - Aamir is the only one of the students who have paid the fee. ✗ :P
  - Aamir is the only one of the students who has paid the fee.

Got the difference???
The lecturer and the principal are on the leave. ✔

What is the difference? We are saying THE lecturer and THE principal. So they are TWO people. So we should use ARE instead of IS. Have a look at another Rule. So that you can get the rule in detail.

- But, when two nouns joined by "and" with an article before the first are treated as Singular.
  - The lecturer and principal are on leave. ✗
  - The lecturer and principal is on leave. ✔

Here, we are joining TWO nouns with and and using a Sing article (THE) before them. Simply, we are using one THE for two nouns. So, we are talking about a single person. So we should use IS instead of ARE.

Check the following examples

- I have a black and a white dogs. (Two dogs)
- I have a black and white dog. (One dog)

- When two nouns are joined by "and" refers to one thing, singular verb can be used.
  - Bread and butter is a healthy food.
  - The horse & carriage is at the door.

Noun and Pronoun Agreement:

- When a collective noun is unanimous, it takes a singular verb.
  - The committee has taken its decision unanimously.

- But when a collective noun is NOT unanimous, it usually takes a plural verb & plural pronoun (adj)
  - The committee are divided in their opinion.

- The expression "many a" takes everything in singular, but it express a plural meaning.
  - Many students have passed their test ✔
  - Many a students has passed this test ✔
Lesson 3: Some Common Errors of English

All of us know English. We can chat with our friends in English, read English books and of course watch English movies and understand them. But we can’t get more marks in English paper of bank exams. Sometimes we feel disappointed by seeing our English marks lesser than our expectations. What’s the problem? Well the problem is “we neglect some basic things!!! we know everything, but we don’t mind forgetting them. Let’s have a look at some common errors in English. Just read these point twice or thrice so that you can get 5 marks at least for sure :)

Wrong

The Titanic drowned in the sea
Higher we go, cooler we feel
She quickly did the job.
He is my older Brother
Most unique opportunity
It is much hot today
Rich should be kind to poor
S/He is my Cousin brother/sister
She quickly did the job
One must do his duty
Do you know to Dance?
Have you bought some apples?
No less than 50 persons Killed
The climate of Goa is better than Nagpur

Correct

The Titanic sank in the sea
The higher we go, the cooler we feel
She did the job quickly.
He is my elder Brother
Unique opportunity
It is very hot today
The rich should be kind to the poor
S/He is my Cousin
She did the job quickly.
One must do one’s duty
Do you know how to Dance?

Shortcut Rule 5: Add 'S' to the main word in compound noun to make it plural.

- Sister-in-Law, the plural form is Sisters-in-Law, not Sister-in-Laws
- Brother-in-Law, the plural form is Brothers-in-law, not Brothers-in-Laws

Shortcut Rule 6: The possessive case of a compound noun is formed by adding 'S' to the last word.

Study PDFs and Official Notices - All in One - www.ExamTyaari.in

Shortcut Rule 7: After the phrases One of / Some of / Each of / Either of / Neither of / Any of / None of, a plural form of a noun is used.

- One of my best friends (not One of my best friend)
- One of the biggest cities (not One of the biggest city)
- Each of the boys is (not Each of the boys are)
- Either of the teachers is (not Either of the teachers are)

Shortcut Rule 8: Nouns indicating numerals should be used in singular form "A Dozen eggs / Two Dozen Oranges". But say Hundreds of eggs / Houses / A hundred rupees / Two hundred rupees.

Shortcut Rule 9: After collective nouns either a singular or plural form of verb is used.

- The team is strong (here, we are treating the TEAM as an UNIT)
- The team are fighting among themselves (Here, we are saying about the players of the team)

Shortcut Rule 10: An "Apostrophe" and 'S' should be used with living beings only to show possession.

- The table's legs were broken. ✗
  - (This is wrong, because the table is a non living thing)
- We can say "The legs of the table were broken" ✔

Shortcut Rule 11: Say, "A five rupee note", "A two mile walk"

Shortcut Rule 12: Don't say "family members / cousin brother or cousin sister" but say "The members of the family / he or she is my cousin".

Shortcut Rule 13: When two nouns are connected by "and", and are closely related, add an apostrophe and S to the last noun.

- Kareena's and Saif's house ✗ (if you think they are wife and husband then this sentence is wrong)

Tenses in English Grammar with Examples

Tense is a form of a verb which is used to indicate the time, and sometimes the continuation or completeness, of an action in relation to the time of speaking. The origin of the word Tense is the Latin word Tempus, which means Time. In simple words we can say that the Tense is a method which is used to refer to time - past, present and future. Tense tells you when the action happens.

There are three main tenses:
- Present Tense
- Past Tense
- Future Tense

Each main tense is divided into sub tenses like
- Simple
- Continuous
- Perfect
- Perfect Continuous tenses.

Let's have a look at the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Tenses Table:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Simple</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Present</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Past</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Future</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Now let's discuss the usage of tenses. I mean when, where and how to use tenses.

Usage of Tenses:

Present Simple: A present simple tense is used,
- to show a regular or habitual actions or a universal truth
  - Eg:
    - The sun rises in the east
    - He goes to school at 9 AM everyday
- in future clauses of time and condition
  - Eg:
    - If it rains, I shall not come
    - I shall come as soon as I finish my homework.

Present Continuous: A present continuous tense is used,
- to show an action which is now in progress
  - Eg:
    - The servant is watering the plants
    - The children are playing outside
- to show a temporary action which is not actually in progress at that time.
  - Eg
    - Now I am reading Gr8AmbitionZ.
    - He is staying with his uncle.
- to show as already decided future action.
  - Eg:
    - We are going for a movie today evening.
    - The Prime minister is visiting the cities tomorrow.

Present Perfect: A present perfect tense is used,
- to show an action completed in the immediate past.
  - Eg:
    - He has just left the class.
    - We have just decided to go for a movie.
- to show a past action where the time of action is unknown or indefinite.
  - Eg:
• to talk of a past action extending up to the present.
  o Eg:
    ▪ Forty years have passed since India became Independent.
    ▪ He has been in hospital since Monday.

Present Perfect Continuous:

• A Present Perfect Continuous tense is used to show an action already started and still going on.
  o Eg:
    ▪ He has been waiting for you for two hours.
    ▪ I have been staying here since 1985.

Past Simple: A Past simple tense is used,

• to show an action completed in the past
  o Eg:
    ▪ I got your letter last week.
    ▪ He went to Bombay yesterday.

• to show a discontinued past habitual action.
  o Eg:
    ▪ We met in my house on every Sunday last year.
    ▪ While in Bombay I went for a movie on every Sunday.

Past Continuous:

• A past continuous tense is used to show an action which was going on at a particular time in the past.
  o Eg:
    ▪ When I saw him he was reading a novel.
    ▪ He jumped out of the train while it was moving.

Past Perfect:

• A Past Perfect tense is used to show an action which was over at a past time.
  o Eg:
    ▪ The train had left before we reached the station.
    ▪ I had finished my work before the guests arrived.

Past Perfect Continuous:

• A past perfect continuous tense is used to show an action started earlier and was going on up-to a particular time in the past.
  o Eg:
    ▪ When I joined the college Mr. Sharma had been teaching there for three years.
    ▪ When I met him he had been painting a picture for three days.

Future Simple:

• A Future Simple tense is used to show an action which is yet to happen.
  o Eg:
    ▪ The classes will commence on next Monday.
    ▪ I shall meet you next week.

Future Continuous:

  - By the time we reach there, the classes will have started.
  - Your uncle will have left for office before you reach there.

Future Perfect Continuous:

A Future Perfect Continuous is used to show an already started action which will be going on for a particular time in the future.

- Eg:
  - By the end of this year, we will have been studying here for five years.

Tips for Sentence Rearrangement / Reordering in English

Sentence Reordering / Rearrangement is one of the Important and easiest section of English Language. Now a days in almost all competitive exams they are asking questions from this area. With basic knowledge of English and little concentration you can easily get full marks in this section. In sentence Rearrangement / Reordering problems they will give you four or five sentences which lack of coherence, connection and development. There will be only one way of rearranging them to acquire coherence, connection and development. You should choose the correct arrangement from the given answers. Before going into details, lets have a look at some important tips.

Important tips for Sentence Rearrangement in English

- Sentences that have full names mentioned are either the starting or come in the first few sentences of the paragraphs.
- Similarly, when they are starting with verbs it is easier to keep in the first paragraph only.
If there are pronouns like (it, this, that etc) in the sentence, then it simply means that they have already discussed about the subject. So in maximum cases it won't be the first sentence (I and You are exceptions for this rule).

Sentences that begin with 'And', 'But' etc usually follow the central theme with an explanation to the same or give additional information.

A central Theme around which the passage is framed. Identify the central theme, which is usually the first sentence.

A logical sequence is present which usually describes the central theme.

In maximum cases Last sentence ends with some conclusion / statement.

Now let's have a look at an example with detailed explanation:

A. Miss Sullivan arrived at the Keller home when Helen was seven.
B. The deaf and blind Helen learned to communicate verbally.
C. But, eventually, Miss Sullivan's effort was rewarded.
D. Before Helen Keller was two years old, she lost her sight and her hearing.
E. Miss Sullivan worked closely with Helen, her new student.
F. At times the teacher became frustrated.

1. DEFACB
2. DAECFB
3. ACFDEB
4. CFDAEB
5. FDACEB

Explanation:

Upon reading the above paragraph, we come to see that in A, B, E, F, the names mentioned are short while in D, the full name is mentioned. Hence D is the first sentence.

Next we see that Ms. Sullivan comes into the picture when Helen is seven years old and hence A is the second sentence.

The paragraph revolves around Helen's learning and hence E states what joins Helen and Ms. Sullivan.

Sentence F states that the teacher became frustrated at times which is followed by C (starts with 'But' which indicates that in spite of something Ms. Sullivan's efforts were rewarded).

Sentence B follows stating how the teacher's efforts were rewarded and is the conclusion to a set of events.

Now let's do some practice exercises:

Example 1:

A. This hill is called the Acropolis.
B. In the city of Athens stands a rocky hill with a flat top.
C. Round the acropolis was the city itself.
D. On the top of the acropolis Pericles built a beautiful temple.

1. D, A, B, C
2. A, B, C, D
3. C, A, B, D
4. B, A, C, D
5. None of the above
Example 2

B. We speak to them, share our food with them, share our joys and sorrows with them
C. Life is like a journey by train
D. During the journey we come across varieties of people

1. C, B, D, A
2. C, D, B, A
3. D, B, C, A
4. D, A, C, B
5. None of these

Example 4

A. The most important of all man’s inventions must be the invention of language
B. Writing makes it possible for people to keep in touch with one another even if they are far away from one another
C. The invention of writing should come next only to that
D. And libraries which contain written records of the great minds are storehouses of knowledge

1. A, B, D, C
2. A, C, B, D
3. A, D, C, B
4. B, A, C, D
5. None of these
Example 5:

A. In every direction space is strewn with whole galaxies
B. These galaxies are too faint to be seen with the naked eye
C. Vast number can be seen with a powerful telescope
D. Most of these galaxies are like our own

Correction of Sentences in English

Friends, today we shall discuss one of the very important topics of SBI PO and other competitive exams' English Section Correction of Sentences or Correct usage of words in English. In this type of questions, each sentence is divided into four parts and each part is marked below as A, B, C, and D. There is a mistake in any one part of the sentence. The students are required to detect which part contains the mistake. If there is no mistake in any part of the sentence, it should be marked as No Error (Option E).

As a number of our friends have been saying that they are unable to perform well in this area we have decided to update detailed lessons on Correction of Sentences in English. This is the introductory lesson and this lesson followed by exercises on Correction of Sentences with detailed explanations. We hope these lessons and exercises will help you perform well in upcoming exams. All the best :)

Examples:

1. He educated not only his nephew but also set him up in business / No error
   (A)                           (B)        (C)        (D)        (E)

   The mistake lies in part (A) ‘not only’ should be placed before ‘educated’ which it qualifies and...
As there is no mistake in any part of the sentence, students should mark cross (X) against E.

The mistake may be of any one of the following types:

1. Mistake in the use of article -- a, an, the.
2. The subject in the sentence may not be agreeing with the verb in number.
3. Pronoun may not be agreeing with its antecedent in person, number of gender.
4. There may be a mistake in the use of preposition.
5. There may be a wrong use of a conjunction in the sentence.
6. There may be mistakes in the use of participles, gerunds, infinitives and verbal nouns.
7. Some word in a sentence may have been wrongly used.
8. There may be a mistake in the use of an adverb or adjective. Degree of adjective may have been wrongly used.
9. Rules regarding verbs, their tenses, number, or moods may not have been correctly followed.
10. There may be miscellaneous mistakes which may not fit in the above categories.

English Correction of Sentences Excercises with Explanations

Friends, we've already updated short notes on Correction of Sentences which is very important topic of English Section for Upcoming competitive exams. you can read that post here. Here are some practice problems on Sentence Corrections with Explanations. Just Read each sentence to find out whether there is any grammatical/idiomatic/spelling mistake/error in it. The error, if any, will be in one part of the sentence. Mark the number of that part with error as your answer. If there is no error, mark (5). And you can check the answer below the questions with explnations. You can read more english related stuff and more practice papers for SBI POs Here. All The Best 😊

- I have criticize (1)/ the remarkable book (2)/ because I benefited (3)/ from reading it. (4)/ No error (5)

- The error lies in part (1) of the sentence. 'I have criticize' should be replaced with 'I did not criticize'. It will make the sentence meaningful.
(2) The structure of Past Perfect Continuous is: Subject + had been + verb +ing

- I am grateful to you (1)/ and all your friends (2)/ for showing sym-pathy (3)/ and kindness with me (4)/ No error (5).
  - (4) The preposition 'with' should be replaced by 'to'.

- It was clear from the way (1)/ they were behaving (2)/ that they had been (3)/ lost their senses (4)/ No error (5).
  - (3) Past Perfect Tense will be used. The structure is: Subject + had + past participle

- As Arundhati Roy (1)/ in her foreword write (2)/ John offers (3)/ un-told stories of people. (4)/ No error (5)
  - (2) The word 'write' is in Present Indefinite Tense. It should be replaced with 'has written' as Present Perfect is used to express past action whose time is not given and not definite.

- Responsibilities includes (1)/ working with the editors (2)/ on all aspects (3)/ of the editorial process. (4)/ No error (5)
  - (1) The word Responsibilities is a Plural Subject. It will take plural verb.
  - (2) The word Care is Singular and it will take Singular verb. Hence, 'care have been taken' should be replaced with 'care has been taken'.

- Distrust seems (1)/ to be a factor (2)/ borne out of (3)/ prevailing circumstances. (4)/ No error (5)
  - (3) The phrase 'borne out of,' should be replaced with 'born of' which means coining from the specified type of parents, background, origin etc. For example,

- That boy possess (1)/ three beautiful pens (2)/ but he would not (3)/ show them to anyone (4)/ No error (5)
  - (1) 'That boy possesses' is the correct usage, as the verb must agree with its subject in number and person.

- Though I had been (1)/ his friend for quite a long time, (2)/ I refused to help him (3)/ because his ill nature (4)/ No error (5).
  - (4) 'Because of' is the correct idiomatic form.

15. Some genuine issues exist (1) / with the newly adopted (2) / system and needs to (3) / be examined seriously. (4) / No error (5)

ANSWERS:

1. Error is in (1). Replace we are yet starting by we are yet to start.
2. Error is in (3). Replace its by their.
3. Error is in (4). Replace to have with the economy by to have on the economy.
4. No error
5. Error is in (2). Replace disputes now a days because of by disputes now a days because. It is superfluous to use preposition of as subordinate clause follows.
6. Error is in (1). The sentence shows past event. So simple past should be used. India demonstrated its supremacy is correct.
7. Error is in (2). Replace relative pronoun who by which because non-living thing has been used.
8. Error is in (1). Replace Driven by the desire to save trees by Being driven by the desire to save trees.
9. No error
10. Error is in (4). Here never is in negative. So, attended any primary school is correct.
11. Error is in (4). Damage takes preposition to. So, replace on the environment by to environment.
12. Error is in (3). Here he (pronoun) is superfluous. So remove he.
13. Error is in (2). The word students is a countable noun. So much students are set by many students are set.
14. Error is in (4). Replace to boosting employee retention by to boost employee retention.
15. Error is in (3). Plural subject takes plural verb. So system and need to should be used.

Passive Voice for Competitive English

In today's article, we shall discuss about Voice. There are two special forms for verbs called voice. Those are

Active voice

Passive voice

Study PDFs and Official Notices - All in One - www.ExamTyaari.in
The active voice is the "normal" voice. This is the voice that we use most of the time. You are probably already familiar with the active voice. In the active voice, the object receives the action of the verb. The passive voice is less usual. In the passive voice, the subject receives the action of the verb. Have a look at the following table of examples for better understand of the voices.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The Active Voice</th>
<th>The Passive Voice</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Cats Eat Fish.</td>
<td>Fish are Eaten by Cats.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now Let's see Where and When we should use Passive Voice:

1. Passive voice is used when the focus is on the action. It is not important or not known, however, who or what is performing the action.
   - Example: "A letter was written." The focus, here, is on the fact that a letter was written. We don't know, however, who wrote it.
2. Sometimes a statement in passive is more polite than active voice. Have a look at the following example.Example A vase was broken.

Focus, here, is on the fact that a vase was broken, but we don't blame anyone. Compare this to: "You broke the vase."

Form of the passive voice:

Subject + the appropriate form of to be + Past Participle

Note: The appropriate form of to be = To be is put in the the tense of the active voice main verb.

When rewriting active sentences in passive voice, note the following:

- The object of the active sentence becomes the subject of the passive sentence.
- The form of the verb is the appropriate form of to be (the tense of the active voice main verb) + the past participle.
- The subject of the active sentence becomes the object of the passive sentence (or is dropped.)

Example:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Active</th>
<th>Passive</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Shivani makes tea.</td>
<td>Tea is made (by Shivani)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Examples of the passive voice:

Passive voice sentences with two Objects:

Rewriting an active sentence with two objects in passive voice means that one of the two objects becomes the subject, the other one remains an object. Which object to transform into a subject depends on what you want to put the focus on. Have a look at the following Examples.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Active/Passive</th>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Verb</th>
<th>Object 1</th>
<th>Object 2</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Active:</td>
<td>Shivani</td>
<td>offered</td>
<td>a flower</td>
<td>to me.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Passive:</td>
<td>A flower</td>
<td>was offered</td>
<td>to me</td>
<td>by Shivani</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Passive:</td>
<td>I</td>
<td>was offered</td>
<td>a flower</td>
<td>by Shivani</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Impersonal Passive:

Have a look at the following Examples:

- They say that the planet is in danger.
- It is said that the planet is in danger.

This type of passive is called impersonal because we use the impersonal form "it is..." This is only possible with verbs of perception (e.g. say, think, know ...)

Ex:

- It is said that...
- It is thought that...
- It is believed that...
- It is known that...
It is also common that we start the passive form of these sentences with the subject of the that-clause:

Ex:
- They say that the planet is in danger. = The planet is said to be in danger.
- They think that women live longer than men. = Women are thought to live longer.

Irregular Verbs

Friends, in today's post we shall discuss about Irregular Verbs.

What are these Irregular Verbs?

Before going into the details, first let's discuss What are the Regular Verbs?

Well, we can call the verbs which contain the ed at the end of the Simple Past and Past Participle forms as the Regular Verbs. So the format of the regular verbs is Base Verb + ed

Now let's have a look at some Examples of the regular verbs:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Infinitive</th>
<th>Simple past</th>
<th>Past participle</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>play</td>
<td>played</td>
<td>played</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>visit</td>
<td>visited</td>
<td>visited</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>work</td>
<td>worked</td>
<td>worked</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Ok, you can take plenty of examples like this for Regular verbs. Now let's have a look at the Irregular Verbs. In contrast to the Regular verbs, irregular verbs are those verbs for which the above pattern of conjugation don't apply.

So, you can't predict the forms of the Irregular verbs, so you should learn them by heart. Here are some techniques to make them remember:
- Use them in appropriate contexts (in your writing or in your conversation)
- Just write down examples in your exercise book.
- Always keep a list of irregular verbs at your disposal. (Keep in mind, that most language books include a section at the end for irregular verbs.)

Why to put this much stress on Irregular words? Because these are very important in the sentence correction part of the competitive exams (especially Bank Exams of course).

Now, let's have a look at some Irregular Verbs:

Parallelism - English for Competitive Exams

In this post, we shall discuss about PARALLELISM. An important topic, which is helpful to you in solving English Language section in Competitive Exams especially Bank Exams. Now have a look at the following Points.

- Item in a series must be parallel: I mean, they must have the same Grammatical form.
  - Nouns: He Likes music, art, and science.
  - Gerunds: He likes dancing, Swimming, and painting. (Verb + Ing Form)
  - Adjectives: He is tall, cool, and handsome. (Adj)
    - They wanted to paint, the living room, to lay a new carpet, and to buy a new sofa. (Infin)
  - Past Tense: The Romans conquered, colonized, and governed much of the world.
  - Past Perfect Tense: He had finished the game, had taken a shower, and had eaten lunch by the time I went to his house.
    - Note: The auxiliary "had" may be omitted in the second and the third verb phrases.

- The structure joined by and, but, as, or then, or although must have the same grammatical form.
  - And: He enjoyed the music of spain and the sculpture of France (N PHRASE)
  - But: That verb form is not active, but passive (Adj)
  - As: Taking the bus can be as costly as taking a plane (V + Ing)
  - Or: He wanted to borrow a car or to rent one while his car was being repaired. (Infin)
Eating in a restaurant is more fun than cooking at home

- Although:
  - Although he liked to eat good food, he did not like to pay high prices for it. (Infin)

Now let's see some Examples:

- ✗ Her husband had bought a car, found a job, and choose a school for the children before she arrived.
- ✔ Her husband had bought a car, found a job, and chosen a school for the children before she arrived.

- ✗ That soup should not be served hot, but at a cold temperature.
- ✔ That soup should not be served hot, but cold.

- ✗ Renting an apartment can be as expensive as to buy a house.
- ✔ Renting an apartment can be as expensive as buying a house.

- ✗ He is young, intelligent, and has charm.
- ✔ He is young, intelligent, and charming.

- ✗ She likes to read, to travel and blogging.
- ✔ She likes to read, to travel, and to blog.

Conditionals - English for Competitive Exams

In this post, we shall discuss about Conditionals. Another important topic which is useful in writing Competitive Exams, especially Bank Exams.

There are two kinds of conditionals

- Real
- Unreal

Real conditions are used for possible situations. The present tense is used in the if-clause (or conditional clause), and the future tense is used in the result clause.

If he comes to the library, I will give him these books.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Pres</th>
<th>Fut</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>comes</td>
<td>will give</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(it is possible that he will come)

* This is an Open Condition.

Unreal conditions are used for impossible or unreal situations.

- The past tense is used in the "If-clause" and would, could, or might, + the simple verb is used in the main clause.

If she practiced well, she could win the game.
If she came to my house, I would give her your message.
That means, She doesn't come to my house.

* This is an unlikely condition.

- When the past perfect is used in the "If-clause", and would, could, or might + have + the past participle are used in the main clause.

  If she had come to my house, I would have given her your message.
  past perf. would + have + Past part
  (she dint come to my house)

* This is a closed condition.

We can summarize the usage of the conditionals discussed above as given below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>If Clause</th>
<th>Main Clause</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>If + Present</td>
<td>Future (result)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If + Past</td>
<td>Would + Verb (result)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If + Past Perfect</td>
<td>Would + Have + Past Participle (result)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Some points to Remember:

- In general, avoid using would in the if-clause
- In present time unreal if - clauses, the correct form of the verb to be for all persons is were

Have a look at some Examples:

- If he were rich, he would go the U.S.A for higher studies.
- If i were a bird, I would fly to England without VISA.

Conditionals in Sentence Correction in Competitive Exams:
The following examples will make clear some of the common mistakes committed in the usage of conditionals.

✗ If I will win the contest, I will buy a new house.
✓ If I win the contest, I will buy a new house.

✗ If I had been there, I would make a speech
✓ If I were there, I would make a speech.
✓ If I had been there, I would have made a speech.
Comparatives and Superlatives

In this post we shall discuss about Comparatives and Superlatives. First lets see what are these comparatives and superlatives and how to use them.

Comparatives:
We use comparatives to compare two things or two people. (e.g He is shorter than his wife.).

Superlatives:
Superlatives are used to compare more than two things or more than two people. (e.g . Mumbai is the biggest city in India).

Note: To form comparatives and superlatives you need to know the number of syllables in the adjective. Syllables are like "sound beats".

Example:
• "find" contains one syllable,
• but "finding" contains two — find and ing.

Hope you have got the basic idea on Comparatives, Superlatives and Sillables. Now lets have a look at some rules to form Comparatives and superlatives.

1. One syllable adjective ending in a silent 'e' — nice
   • Comparative — add 'r' — nicer
   • Superlative — add 'st' — nicest

2. One syllable adjective ending in one vowel and one consonant — big
   • Comparative — the consonant is doubled and 'er' is added — bigger
   • Superlative — the consonant is doubled and 'est' is added — biggest

3. One syllable adjective ending in more than one consonant or more than a vowel — high, cheap
   • Comparative — 'er' is added — higher, cheaper
   • Superlative — 'est' is added — highest, cheapest
4. A two syllable adjective ending in 'y' — happy
   - Comparative — 'y' becomes 'i' and 'er' is added — happier
   - Superlative — 'y' becomes 'i' and 'est' is added — happiest

5. Tow syllable or more adjectives without 'y' at the end — exciting
   - Comparative — more + the adjective + than — more exciting than
   - Superlative — more + the adjective + than — the most exciting

Examples:
- The Nile River is longer and more famous than the Thames.
- Egypt is much hotter than Sweden.
- Everest is the highest mountain in the world.
- This is one of the most exciting films I have ever seen.

Here is a table of Irregular comparatives and superlatives

How to use comparatives and superlatives?

Comparatives are used to compare two things or two people. Superlatives are used to compare more than two things or two people.
people: Alan is taller than John.

Similarities

To express similarities use the following structure:

... as + adjective + as ...

Examples:

- Raghav is as intelligent as Prabhas.
- Aamir is as popular as Sharukh.

Either / or - Neither / nor

Today we shall discuss about the Usage of Either / Or and Neither / Nor.

Usage of Either / or :

We can use either / or in a sentence in the affirmative sense when referring to a choice between two possibilities

Ex: We can either study now or after the dinner - it's up to you.
We can use Neither / Nor in a sentence in the negative sense when you want to say that two or more things are not true.

Ex: Neither my mother nor my father went to university.

Rules you should keep in mind while using Either / Or (or) Neither / Nor:

- If both elements are singular, then the verb should also be singular. Have a look at an example, o Either the father or the mother has to attend the meeting.
    - (Here father and mother are singular; so the verb has is also singular)
  o Neither Kareena nor Saif is going to the function. (Kareena and Saif are singular; so the verb is is also singular)
- However, if one of the elements is plural, then use a plural verb.
  o Either Jasmine or the girls are going to prepare dinner tonight.
    - (the girls is plural; so the verb are is plural too)
  o Neither the lecturer nor the students were in the classroom this morning.
    - (the students is plural; so the verb were is plural too)

A Little / A Few - Little / Few

Friends, today we shall discuss about the differences and usage of A little, a few and very little, very few. A little, a few, (very) little and (very) few are quantifiers.

A Little / A Few:

The expressions A Little / A Few mean some or enough.

Ex:

- "I have got a little money" = I have got some money. It's enough for me to do what I want.
- "I have got a few friends" = I have got some or enough friends. We meet every day.

The expressions (very) little and (very) few mean hardly any or not enough.

Ex:

- I have got (very) little money = I have got hardly any. I haven't got enough. I'll borrow some from my friend.
- I have got (very) few friends = I have got hardly any. I haven't got enough. I need to make new friends.

Have a look at the following example table for a clear understanding of a little / a few and very little and very few.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Example</th>
<th>Meaning</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I've got a little money. I'm going to pay the exam fee.</td>
<td>some/ enough</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I've got (very) little money</td>
<td>hardly any</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I've got (very) few friends</td>
<td>hardly any, not enough</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
few friends. We meet everyday.

I've got (very) little money. I need to borrow some to pay the exam fee.

I've got (very) few friends. I need to make new friends.

Now we shall discuss some rules:

- Affirmative sentences:
  - A little, a few, (very) little and (very) few are generally used in affirmative statements, not negatives or questions.

- Countable and uncountable nouns:
  - A little and (very) little are used with uncountable nouns (money, bread, water...)
  - A few and (very) few are used with countable nouns (friends, tables, teachers...)

Too and Enough

In Today’s post we shall discuss about the usage of Too and Enough.

- These two indicate degree.
- They are used with adjectives.

Too: The meaning of Too is “more than what is needed”.

Enough: The meaning of Enough is “sufficient”.

Have a look at some examples so that you can understand the usage of Too and Enough.
• She is intelligent enough to get a good score in IBPS.

• You're not writing fast enough.

• I don't have enough money.

• He has too many girl friends.

• Uma has got too much patience.

Now let's see some important points you should keep in mind while using Too:

• Too comes before adjectives and adverbs:
  - It's too hot to wear that coat.
  - I was walking too fast.

• Too may also come before nouns when it is used with the expressions too much and too many:
  - There is too much salt in this food.
  - There are too many students in this classroom.

Now let's see some important points you should keep in mind while using Enough:

• Enough precedes adjectives and adverbs:
  - He isn't young enough to dance with those students.
  - We're not walking quickly enough.

• Enough may also precede nouns:
  - We have enough money.
  - I have not got enough money to pay the exam fees.
Much, Many and A Lot

In today's post we shall discuss about the usage of Much, Many and A Lot. These three indicate a large quantity of something, for example "I have a lot of friends" means I have a large quantity of friends. These three are (much, many and a lot) are quantifiers. Now let's see some examples to demonstrate the usage of Much, Many and A Lot.

- How much money have you got?
  - I haven't got much money.
  - I have got a lot.
  - I have got a lot of money.
- How many students are in the classroom?
  - There aren't many.
  - There are a lot.
  - There are a lot of/lots of students.

In the interrogative forms we use:

- Much with uncountable nouns. (money, bread, water...)
  - Ex:
    - How much money / bread / water... is there?
- Many with countable nouns. (students, desks, windows...)
  - Ex:
    - How many students / teachers / desks... are there?

In the negative forms we use:

- Much with uncountable nouns. (money, bread, water...)
  - Ex:
    - I haven't got much money/bread/water...
- Many with countable nouns. (students, desks, windows...)
  - Ex:
    - There aren't many students / teachers / desks...

In the affirmative forms we use:

- A lot, A lot of, lots of with countable and uncountable nouns.
  - Ex:
    - "How many students are there in the classroom?"
    - "There are a lot."
    - "How many students are there in the classroom?"
    - "There are a lot of / lots of students".
It is also possible (and preferable) to use many and much rather than a lot of, lots of and a lot in formal written English.

- Ex:
  - There are many students.
  - Much time was spent on studying.

Remember friends, if you're speaking or writing to friends (informal), use a lot, a lot of, lots of. But if you want to be more formal, perhaps it is preferable to use much and many.

Some more points to Remember:

- In affirmative sentences with so, as or too, we also use much / many.
  - Ex:
    - "Ramani has so many friends."
    - "She has as many friends as Mohana."
    - "Mohan has too much money."

Now lets see the detailed view of the points mentioned above:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Interrogative</th>
<th>Negative</th>
<th>Affirmative</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>How many books are there?</td>
<td>There aren't many.</td>
<td>There are a lot.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How much money have you got?</td>
<td>I haven't got much.</td>
<td>I've got a lot.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| | | There are a lot of books. |
| | | There are lots of books. |
| | | There are many books (formal) |
| | | I've got a lot of money. |
| | | I've got lots of money. |
| | | I have got much money (formal) |

I wish / if Only

In this post we shall discuss about the usage of I wish / If Only in sentences. There are three types of I wish / if only sentences:

1. Wish, wanting change for the present or future with the simple past.
2. Regret with the past perfect.
3. Complaints with would + verb.

To express a wish:

The form of the sentence:

If only / I wish + simple past

Ex:

If only I knew how to speak Spanish. (I don’t know how to speak Spanish and I would like to learn how to speak it.)
Usage:

- To express a wish in the present or in the future.
- The simple past here is an unreal past.

- When you use the verb to be the form is “were”.

Example:

I wish I were a millionaire!

To express regret:

The form of the sentence:

If only / I wish + past perfect

Ex:

If only I had woken up early. (I didn’t wake up early and I missed the train.)

Usage:

- To express a regret.
- The action is past.

Complaining:

The form of the sentence:

I wish / if only + would + verb

Ex:

I wish you wouldn’t arrive so late all the time (I’m annoyed because you always come late and I want you to arrive on time)

Usage:

- To complain about a behavior that you disapprove.
- Expressing impatience, annoyance or dissatisfaction with a present action

Used to, be Used to, get Used to

Today we shall discuss about the usage of Used to, be Used to and Get Used to.

By using Used to you can express:

- A particular thing always happened or was true in the past.
But it no longer happens or is no longer true now:

Have a look at some examples of the usage of Used to:

- Shivani used to live in Bangalore.
- She used to dance every evening, but since she had that terrible lung disorder she doesn't dance anymore.
- Why don't you come and see me like you used to?

Now let's see the forms of used to:

There are three forms for Used to. They are

- Interrogative form:
  - Did you use to dance regularly?
- Affirmative form:
  - Yes, I used to go jogging nearly every day.
- Negative form:
  - No, I didn't use to exercise on a regular basis.

The usage of Used to, be used to, get used to:

- Used to tells us that a particular thing always happened or was true in the past (see the above examples)
- Be used to is used to say that something is normal, not unusual.
  - Examples:
    - I'm used to living alone.
    - Don't worry, Mohan is used to driving for long hours. He has worked as a professional driver for 20 years.
- Get used to tells us that something is in the process of becoming normal.
  - Examples:
    - He doesn't like that small town, but he'll get used to it.
    - She found the heels too high, but she got used to them.
    - Since the divorce, she has become very sad. But I think she'll get used to her new life.
    - I got used to living in Canada in spite of the cold weather.
- Get used to and be used to are followed by either a noun or a gerund. Have a look at the following table.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Get used to + noun</th>
<th>Get used to + gerund (verb+ing)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I got used to the noise</td>
<td>I got used to waking up early</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I'm used to the hot weather</td>
<td>I'm used to working late at night</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Lesson 6 : Tips for Correct Spellings

Rules / Tips for Correct Spellings – Lesson

The one word which most students dread in any competitive exam is "English", and more so "grammar!". Grammar is an integral and indispensable part of English (or any language, for that matter) and words / vocabulary are an integral part of grammar. And, when we talk of words, can spellings be far behind? Identifying the wrong spellings is a part of the evaluation process, in the English section, in most competitive exams - bank PO and clerical exams, SSC, IB and other exams. The 'beauty' of English is that words are not spelled the same way they are pronounced and vice-versa. As Ambrose Bierce, American editorialist, journalist, short story writer, and one of America's greatest satirist, once said, "Orthography is the science of spelling by the eye instead of the ear." This implies that words that are written are not necessarily pronounced the same way! Under such circumstances, mastering spellings becomes critical to your success, not only in competitive examinations - where both your oral and written communications is tested - but also in your career and life.

Here are some Tips / Rules for Correct Spellings

There are certain rules / tips for correct spellings, and it will do you a 'world of good' if you can remember these rules / tips, and apply them accordingly while practicing the spellings of words.

1. 'ie' and 'ei' : When 'ie' is pronounced 'i:' as in 'bee', the 'i' comes before the 'e'.

Believe Belief
Brief
Achieve
Aggrieved
Fierce
Field
Grieve
Relief

Chief Hygiene
when 'ei' is pronounced 'i:' as in 'bee', 'ei' comes after the 'c'.
Preconceived
Receive
However, some exceptions to this rule are: Counterfeit, Plebeian, Weird, Seize, where the 'ei' spelling doesn't follow a 'c'. You need to learn the spellings for these.

2. The consonant 'l' is usually doubled, even when the stress does not fall on the last syllable. This rule is applicable for UK English spellings. However, the US spellings have also been shown below for your benefit and understanding.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: An Exception is 'paralleled'.

3. Doubling Consonants: When adding 'ed' and 'ing' endings to verbs that end with a single vowel plus a consonant, do not double the final consonant if the stress doesn't fall at the end of the word.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>

</tbody>
</table>

when adding 'ed' and 'ing' endings to verbs that end with a single vowel plus a consonant, double the final consonant if the stress falls at the end of the word.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>

<td>Admitted</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Refer</td>
<td>Referring</td>
<td>Referred</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Defer</td>
<td>Deferring</td>
<td>Deferred</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4. Adding endings to words that end with a double "l" : Drop the final "l" from words that end with a double "l" before adding endings which begin with a consonant. (Such as 'ment', 'ful' and 'li')

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>‘ly’, ‘ful’ &amp; ‘ment’ endings</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Will</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skill</td>
<td>Skillful (Skillful in US English)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: The ending 'ness' is an exception to this rule:

- Small: Smallness;
- Ill: illness

5. You must have come across the expression" When two vowels go walking, the first one does not talking". This means that when there are two vowels in a row, the first one usually has a long sound, and the second is silent. 'That's why it's 'lean', not 'laen'; 'team', not 'taem'; 'coat', not 'caot', 'boat' not
Tips and Tricks to Improve English Spellings - Lesson 2

Friends, in our last post we have discussed some Rules / Tips for correct spellings. Read that post here before reading this post. Today we shall discuss some more tips and tricks for correct spellings.

6. You will be at your best at learning words when you make an effort to understand them. A good way to understand a word is to break it into syllables. Look for prefixes, suffixes, and roots. Practice each short part, and then the whole word.

    disappearing ---&gt; dis-ap-pear-ing traditional ------&gt; tra-di-tion-al

After you break apart a word, ask yourself: How is this word like other words I know?

Spelling the word "traditional" may make you think of the spellings, 'functional' and 'national'. Finding patterns among words is one of the best ways to learn spelling.

7. It's also helpful when you try making up funny memory aids. For instance, do you have trouble remembering which has two s's - desert (dry land) or dessert (a sweet course) ? Remember that with 'desert' you'd like a second one ;)

    Similarly, do you have trouble remembering how to spell separate ? Remember that there is a 'rat' in the middle.

8. Compile a list of words that you find difficult to spell. Go over a few previous papers and spelling exams to track down the trouble makers. Once you've got your list in hand, see if some of the above mentioned tips can help you.

9. Another kind of memory aid is to make up a sentence in which the first letter of each word can be used to make the spelling word. The sillier, the better - goofy sentences may be easier to remember!

    Chili - Cats have interesting little ideas
Weird - We entered India running directly
Seize - She entered into zoo everyday

10. Make sure that you are pronouncing the words correctly. This can help you avoid some common spelling errors. Remember, that there are many words (and phrases) in English that are not spelled the way they are pronounced, and vice-versa. For example: imbroglio, colonet, plumber, encore, melee, double entendre, Coup d'état, corps, coxcomb, ricochet, rapprochement, communiqué, laissez, faire, lagniappe, gaol etc.

How to master correct spellings?

One way of mastering correct spellings is to be aware of various kinds of words that are frequently used in written form, such as in newspapers, magazines, journals, novels, biographies, autobiographies, websites/internet, etc. Practice correct spelling through reading, by paying attention to the way words are written, and jot down those you didn’t know. Whenever you have any doubt about the spelling of any word, look up a dictionary immediately, and try to remember the spellings of such words.

Every day, at least for about half an hour, you should play vocabulary games such as anagrams, word games, cross word puzzles, scrabble, boggle etc.

That’s all for now friends. Hope this article helped you improving your English spelling skills. Now lets have a look at some useful books for improving spellings.

Here are some reference books for improving Spellings

Spellings often Misspelled

Friends, thanks for the overwhelming response to our Tips for correct spellings. Some of our friends have asked us to include some tips to remember the spellings that are often misspelled / confuse. Most spelling errors are unintentional. The main problem with the spellings is, people remember the sound of the word in their mother tongue and try to write the spelling to that sound using their own English language skills. But as English is a tricky language, this technique leads to some typing errors. Some common typos are:

- Omitting letters from a word
- Adding extra letters
- Transposing two letters in a word
- Spacing words improperly
We can avoid these errors with some careful observation and practice. Here is the list of some misspelled / confused words. Just observe the common errors carefully, and learn the correct spellings prudently. We hope this observation helps you improving your spellings. All the Best :)

Lesson 7 : Reading Comprehension :

How to Get Good Marks in Reading Comprehension ?
Friends, Now a days, almost every competitive exam asking reading comprehension questions. In these type of questions, they will give you a passage / comprehension and will ask you to read that and answer the questions followed by that passage. Actually this Reading Comprehension section is designed to test the ability of the student to read a passage and understand its contents and his ability to draw inferences on the basis of what is read. In simple words, the student's ability to grasp the contents of the passage in a relatively short span of time is what is being tested.

The Student is expected to read the given passage, understand its contents well and answer the questions given at the end of the passage. All this to be completed in the limited time that is given.

There are two important skills you should develop to do well in reading comprehension. Those are,

1. Reading Rate
2. Understanding of the Passage

Let's have a look at each of them individually to get a clear understanding, before we get into the techniques of attempting Reading Comprehension.

The reading skill cant be evaluated on a number of words per minute scale, but reading rate can definitely be measured. A person who can read faster can answer more number of questions in the given time than a person with slower reading speed, Other things remaining the same. It is this reading rate or your speed of reading that you have to aim at improving. There is no overnight solution to this. Constant and extensive reading will improve your reading rate. Check your reading speed today (take any passage, count the number of words, clock the time taken by you to read it and calculate the speed in words per minute) and keep a record of it. Then, keep checking your speed regularly and tabulate the same. Check whether your speed has increased over time with practice. However, do not become complacent if your speed has increased.

This brings us to the second point.. i.e., understanding of the passage. A person may be able to read the passage much faster than others but if he is not able to answer the questions pertaining to the passage, then the speed is of no use at all. it is very essential to grasp the meaning of the passage while reading. While you are reading, you should constantly think, evaluate, reason out, judge and co relate with what has already been read. A good vocabulary would enable you understand the nuances and grasp the meaning of various issues discussed in the passage. While an attempt can be made at pointing out various categories of questions that may be asked and give a variety of tips, you will basically have to draw on the resources built by wide and extensive reading and rely on your own vocabulary. No training will possible regarding understanding and analysing the problem. However, we are going to practice in Comprehension Reading.
In addition to good vocabulary, also needed is the ability to zero in on the central theme of the passage. This can be developed with extensive reading practice as well as proper concentration at the time of reading the passage. You should also consciously develop the habit of correlating each new sentence read with the part of the passage already read and mentally form a linkage of all ideas expressed in the passage while simultaneously weeding out redundant statements.

The passage given in competitive exams (especially for bank exams) do not conform to any standards as regards the subject matter or the length of the passage. While the subjects covered can be as wide ranging as Economy, Sciences (like Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, Physics, Astronomy), Social Sciences (like Psychology, History, Politics, Sociology), Humanities (like Literature, Art, Music) or Current Topics (Social, Political, Economical), the student is not expected to have any prior knowledge of the topics given.

The passages will sometimes be very complex in nature while others will be simple in nature and easy to understand.

The questions themselves can pertain either to parts directly contained in the passage or related to implications and inferences. Sometimes you may be asked to comment on the tone of the passage or to choose a title for the passage or to identify the main idea in the passage but you are hardly ever asked for your opinion on the passage.

Important Tips for Reading Comprehension

Friends, in our last post we’ve discussed some basic techniques on how to get good marks in Reading Comprehension section of bank and other competitive exams. (you can read that post here). In this post we shall discuss some important points you should keep in mind while dealing with Reading Comprehension problems.

What to read first? The given Passage or Questions?

There are people belonging to both schools of thought. But it is preferable to read the passage first to get a grasp of the broad ideas the author is trying to communicate and then take up the questions one by one. In the process of going through the passage initially, underline key words and phrases as well as some important points in the passage (for online exam you can’t mark anything so better keep important words in your mind instead of writing anywhere). Then, when you go through each question, get back to the relevant portion of the passage, read it more thoroughly this time and then answer the question.

As mentioned in our previous post, the following are the major categories of questions that are asked:

Study PDFs and Official Notices - All in One - www.ExamTyaari.in
1. Main idea of the passage / title for the passage
2. Specific details basically reproducing what is given in the passage
3. Drawing inferences / implications
4. Determining the meaning of words / phrases as used in the passage or by the author
5. Application of the ideas expressed in the passage to other situations

Where you have to choose a title for the passage or identify the main theme of the passage, check the opening and closing sentences of each paragraph particularly the opening sentence of the first paragraph and the last sentence of the last paragraph. At the same time, be wary about too specific or too broad choices in the multiple choices given.

We are planning to give you a number of practice tests on Reading Comprehension as this is one of the crucial area of Competitive Exams. We hope these tests may enable you to get sufficient practice in this important area. Please remember that in this area, unlike in other areas like Maths or Reasoning where you will be able to assess for yourself how much of new knowledge you have added on and how much of improvement in speed you have achieved, there will not be such clear indicators. However, performance in reading comprehension will improve only with practice and that requires a lot of effort and determination on your part.

In addition to the online tests you take from this blog, you will have to put in at least 45 minutes of reading practice per day to improve your reading speed and comprehension. You need to take up serious reading material for practice - News Papers Editorials, editorials in general magazines like India Today or Business Magazines like Business India or other articles in such magazines, general books on a wide variety of subjects like Psychology, Sociology, Technology, etc. For each article or part of a book that you are reading, go through the process of reading, writing down from memory a few important points from what you have just read and then checking back with the text whether any important points got left out. This exercise done regularly over a period of time will certainly help you improve your reading speed as well as your ability to understand and retain what you read. But, as already mentioned, only regular practice can help you in this regard.

All The Best...
